Roadside and Rentals Coverage

options

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a black leather jacket and a gold watch, is talking on a black smartphone. She has her hand to her forehead, suggesting stress or concern. In the background, a green car is parked with its hood open, indicating a roadside issue. The scene is set outdoors during the day.

No surprises on the road or at the rental car counter

When the unexpected happens, Erie Insurance is there for you. To get even more from your auto policy, consider adding on the optional Roadside and Rentals bundle, which includes Roadside Service Coverage, Rental Car Coverage and Transportation Expense Coverage (you can choose one or all of these coverages). With Roadside and Rentals, you'll be taken care of in a roadside emergency and when you need more robust rental car coverage.

Roadside Service

“Let me help you.” Those words mean so much when you're stranded on the road somewhere. Answering the call is only the beginning. With Erie Insurance's Roadside Service Coverage, we are quick to get you where you need to be if your car breaks down.

You can add this optional coverage to your ERIE auto policy and have peace of mind knowing you will be taken care of if your car has a flat tire, dead battery, runs out of gas or breaks down. (This program does not cover accident-related towing.) If you need help, call 888-FOR-ERIE (888-367-3743). You'll be connected with Agero, ERIE's nationwide road service assistance partner. There's no deductible, you pay nothing up front and the service is there for you 24/7, so even if it's 4 a.m. or Christmas Day, that's OK. We have your back.

Rental Car Coverage

Your life doesn't have to stop just because your car is out of commission from an accident. While basic rental car coverage* is automatically included in your auto policy, that might not be the best option for you and your family.

If you need a larger vehicle or want coverage for a collision loss, you'll want to add Transportation Expense Coverage to your ERIE auto policy.

The annual cost of the coverage is typically less than a one-day car rental. And what if your vehicle takes several weeks to repair? You shouldn't have to let an accident (and basic rental car insurance) inconvenience you. Adding Transportation Expense Coverage is a smart insurance decision.

Talk to your local ERIE Agent today about the details of adding Roadside and Rentals Coverage. It's just one more way ERIE is with you mile after mile.

*In all states except VA and NC, Transportation Expenses are included with Comprehensive Coverage but must be purchased separately for a Collision loss. Rental vehicle coverage is based on the type of vehicle rented, rather than a specific dollar amount (see chart at right). In VA and NC, Transportation Expense Coverage is included with Comprehensive Coverage and Collision Coverage and is subject to a per day limit.
